

Annual subject index of articles

JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER 1979

Each listing shows the title of a major article or short article, the latter in italics. The first two figures following the title indicate the date of the issue, and the last figure indicates the number of the page upon which the article begins. MEDICAL ECONOMICS will send physicians any three articles listed below without charge. Copies of additional articles are priced at $1.00 each, and, as long as the supply lasts, whole copies of the magazine (including any of our special issues) may be purchased for $3.00 each from the Reader Service Department.

Assistants

- 6 steps toward a sane salary policy. 1-8-86
- Maybe I should have sent my embezzler to jail. 2-5-88
- Don't let a forger "doctor" your checks. 3-5-242
- How the I.R.S. turned up our $360,000 embezzler. 3-19-139
- How to see more patients without working harder. 3-19-88
- The doctor as boss: hiring top assistants. 5-14-196; training a new assistant. 5-28-84; teaching good telephone technique. 6-11-118; teaching the subtle art of collections. 6-25-78
- Things even your best employees won't tell you—unless you ask. 8-6-111
- The doctor who was too good to his staff. 9-3-90
- Is your staff setting liability traps for you? 10-15-75
- Proven ways to cut practice costs. 10-29-70

Billings

- What electronic banking can do for—and to—you. 1-8-243
- Don't let a forger "doctor" your checks. 3-5-242
- Tax strategy: You've got elbowroom—but use it soon. 11-5-14

Cars

- Buying a car in Europe? Look out for hidden costs.* 1-8-133
- The Datsun 280-ZX: This time, more is better. 1-22-82
- Finding today's—and tomorrow's—best car buys. 2-5-256
- My 14-year love affair with a great set of cheap wheels. 3-19-100
- Stuck with a lemon? Here's how your colleagues fight back. 4-16-147
- GM's 1980 compacts: You'll need a lot of big-car options. 5-14-88
- My long fight to collect under VW's "secret warranty." 6-11-133
- Trying to cut auto-repair costs? Don't overlook junkyards. 6-25-97
- A diesel-car owner spells out the pros and cons. 8-20-103
- BMW 733i vs. Mercedes 450SEL: What's luxury really worth? 9-3-82
- Is there an electric car in your future? 9-17-79
- This Sunday driver needs fireproof underwear. 10-1-160

- From Bug to Bugatti in only 1,001 easy steps. 10-15-122
- Practice expenses: Where you can trim—and where you shouldn't. 11-5-124

Colleagues

- Grayzoning: Does it protect patients—or bad doctors? 2-19-186
- Are those tougher doctor-policing laws really working? 4-2-106
- Why can't we heed a colleague's cry for help? 8-6-73
- Family practice from a wheelchair? I've learned how. 8-20-76
- Doctor rehabilitation: It is working. 11-26-114
- The two sides of every successful consultation. 12-10-172
- Did I carry medical policing too far? 12-24-53

Collections

- What electronic banking can do for—and to—you. 1-8-243
- How to see more patients without working harder. 3-19-88
- The trouble with cash payments: They disappear. 6-11-90
- The doctor as boss: teaching the subtle art of collections. 6-25-78
- How to collect for every insurance report you make.* 8-6-162
- What to do when a patient goes bust.* 10-15-157
- Practice expenses: Where you can trim—and where you shouldn't. 11-5-124

Corporations

- Incorporation is more than just cutting taxes. 1-22-227
- Corporate groups: how each doctor can have his own retirement plan. 2-5-249
- You might make more if your corporation pays you less. 2-19-151
- Don't let your retirement plan loaf on you. 5-28-99
- What the IRS hunts for in doctor corporation audits. 6-25-29
- Games doctors play with corporate fringes. 7-9-147
- Get ready to live with tough new medical expense-plan rules. 7-23-95
- How should you borrow from your pension fund? Very carefully. 9-3-127
- Tax-shelter practice income? Yes, if you'll fight. 10-15-37
- Retirement: Matching your nest egg to the life you want. 11-5-136

Drugs

- How Ted Kennedy "investigated" the FDA. 5-14-115
- I used my office for a drug-bust trap.* 6-11-167
- How many patients still get the drug you prescribe? 9-3-35

Education

- How to get the most for your C.M.E. dollars. 1-22-200
- Maybe we're what's wrong with continuing education. 2-5-234
- Will tomorrow's doctors teach you cost control? 2-5-137
- Don't pass up those pre-convention tours abroad.* 8-6-191
- How to keep a CME speaker on his toes. 9-17-163
- Tailor a CME program to your specific needs?* 10-29-77

Equipment

- What's your practice worth—in cash? 1-22-180
- Who says you have to sacrifice comfort for efficiency? 5-28-132
- Today's best buys in desk-top calculators. 9-3-145
- Tax-shelter practice income? Yes, if you'll fight. 10-15-37
- Proven ways to cut practice costs. 10-29-70
- My typewriter does insurance claims by itself.* 12-24-65

Estate planning

- Single-premium annuities? They may actually make sense now. 2-5-123
- Heaven can wait . . . but you can't. 4-30-56; Why you can't get by with a simple will. 4-30-58; So you think you know who'll get what? 4-30-70; How to leave your children a tax break. 4-30-73; Guard against these seven tax traps. 4-30-90; Don't stick your heirs with unnecessary expenses. 4-30-112; Investing for your estate as well as for yourself. 4-30-130
- Life insurance: A fresh look at what you really need. 11-5-215
- I saw—up close—why a will is crucial. 12-24-77

Ethics

- What the F.T.C. actually said about doctor advertising. 2-19-211

Continued on page 104

Annual subject index

Ethics (cont.)

Are your business ethics out of date? 3-5-228
Dr. Nork returns to medicine. 5-14-146
Does it pay to advertise? A report on doctors who do. 8-6-168
Would your patients prefer a bargain doctor? 8-6-208
What the crackdown on hospital privileges means to you. 8-20-93

Family

Guess who the bad guys were at my natural-childbirth course. 1-8-138
I had to find a surgeon for my wife—or else. 2-5-227
A way for you—and your kids—to serve the poor. 3-19-180
So you think you know who'll get what? 4-30-70;
How to leave your children a tax break. 4-30-73;
Guard against these seven tax traps. 4-30-90
Do your kids a favor—make them pay some college bills. 5-28-149
Is your best investment manager living with you? 5-28-78
Father-and-son practice: special problems, special pleasures. 6-11-84
How do you pin a fracture in a tropical retreat? 9-17-177
After hours, 10-1-9; Sharing your life with somebody else, 10-1-12; What makes some marriages terrific, 10-1-16; What makes other marriages lousy, 10-1-33; Extramarital sex: Sometimes it helps, 10-1-51; Raising a family—your toughest job, 10-1-68; Yours aren't the only "impossible" kids, 10-1-72; Where religion fits in, 10-1-101; Drinking and drugs: behind the hard numbers, 10-1-109; Getting more fun out of life, 10-1-120; Don't play doctor all the time, 10-1-124; How personal possessions help, 10-1-135; Vacations: More is definitely better, 10-1-147; Taking stock—and looking ahead, 10-1-184

Fees

Orthopedists: an economic profile of those high earners. 1-8-120
Why psychiatrists are behind the economic eight ball. 2-5-158
A dollars-and-patients look at an overcrowded specialty. 3-5-172
Getting my fee profile updated was like pulling strings. 4-16-156
Living with today's wage-price guidelines—or worse. 4-16-132
Let's be more professional about professional courtesy. 5-28-127
The pros and cons of "a la carte" fees. 6-11-29
We're just plain overcharging our patients. 7-9-157
Why (and how) I charge for telephone advice. 7-23-77
A new substitute for a Medicaid sticker: cash. 8-6-79
Would your patients prefer a bargain doctor? 8-6-208
OBG: A top-earning specialty loses some of its edge. 12-10-91
Who says doctors can't live with negotiated fees. 12-10-131

Government medicine

What you can expect from an inflation-wary Congress. 1-8-37
Would this program change your mind about Medicaid? 1-8-207
A hospital bed for a dying patient? Medicaid said No. 1-22-151
The year the health reformers got what they wanted. 1-22-86
How the Medifraud crackdown will hurt innocent doctors. 2-5-37
The right way to get doctors where they're needed. 2-5-289
Just where does the A.M.A. stand on N.H.I. these days? 3-5-255

Geriatric care: Is Britain doing something right? 3-19-213
"Trial by ambush" is not the name of the game." 3-19-188
What's ahead for doctors if N.H.I. founders. 3-19-125
These doctors see Medicaid patients—or else! 4-2-29
Don't swallow all those scare stories about health reforms. 4-16-93
How a $7 million HSA flagship sank itself. 5-14-79
How Ted Kennedy "investigated" the FDA. 5-14-115
How to play by H.S.A. rules and still win. 5-28-111
New quality controls on your practice: how soon, how tough? 6-25-142
Guess who suffers when HEW folds a PSRO. 7-23-144
A quick guide to helping the elderly understand health insurance. 7-23-161
A new substitute for a Medicaid sticker: cash. 8-6-79
The only way America can survive the 1980s. 8-6-195
Why the FTC has declared war on doctors. 8-6-29
Here comes another big push to put an HMO in your future. 8-20-29
How much Canadian doctors earn, spend, and save. 8-20-132
Paperless claims processing is here. 8-20-75
The year the pendulum swung back. 8-20-150
How many patients still get the drug you prescribe? 9-3-35
What Congress' cut-rate NHI bill will cover. 9-3-203
To talk to a computer, you must get its attention. 9-17-211
Will the courts end specialty discrimination on fees? 9-17-39
Why Congress' deregulation mood doesn't apply to doctors. 10-29-29
The Kennedy liberal with a big voice in your future. 11-12-125
Why catastrophic health insurance is going nowhere. 11-12-29
Can peer review go public and survive? 12-10-187
Making a claim form tell enough—but not too much. 12-10-163

Health insurance

I.P.A.: the initials that may mean your future. 2-19-124
Just where does the A.M.A. stand on N.H.I. these days? 3-5-255
What's ahead for doctors if N.H.I. founders. 3-19-125
Getting my fee profile updated was like pulling strings. 4-16-156
How far can you go in fighting an H.M.O.? 4-16-65
A standard claim-form system that nobody likes. 6-11-141
A quick guide to helping the elderly understand health insurance. 7-23-161
Paperless claims processing is here. 8-20-75
What Congress' cut-rate NHI bill will cover. 9-3-203
Combining prepaid care with traditional practice. 9-17-85
Will the courts end specialty discrimination on fees? 9-17-39
A system for keeping insurance forms where they belong. 10-15-185
Why catastrophic health insurance is going nowhere. 11-12-29
Making a claim form tell enough—but not too much. 12-10-163
Who says doctors can't live with negotiated fees. 12-10-131

© 1979 MEDICAL ECONOMICS COMPANY

"We don't have a retirement plan. If you can't make your bundle with us in three years, we don't want you."

Home

First we built our own house. Then we built 400 more. 1-8-180

Your home is an even better tax shelter now. 1-22-218

Our long, careful countdown for condo retirement. 3-19-219

One way to make today's dollar cover a trip abroad. 6-25-137

Water in the living room? They planned it that way. 7-9-218

A new source of help when you build a house. 9-17-188

Home equity: Make the most of a bedrock asset. 11-5-195

Oriental rugs: still a solid investment to stand on. 12-10-126

Hospitals

Let's keep residents out of community hospitals. 2-5-80

Manage emergencies by phone? I do. 2-5-283

Grayzoning: Does it protect patients—or bad doctors? 2-19-186

Only in Las Vegas: a lottery to hike hospital admissions. 3-5-252

These doctors see Medicaid patients—or else! 4-2-29

FFs vs. OBGs: a battle over babies. 6-25-129

"President Carter could ruin our hospitals." 7-23-139

They took my good name and gave me a number. 8-6-164

What the crackdown on hospital privileges means to you. 8-20-93

It's time we made hospitals stop ripping off patients. 9-17-75

Where do doctors stand in a nurses' strike? Right in the middle! 12-24-66

Humor

The doctor-witness who didn't keep his cool. 1-22-81

The year the health reformers got what they wanted. 1-22-86

Where the freebies are really super. 2-5-178

The year the pendulum swung back. 8-20-150

Sneak sleeping: how to recognize and cope with it. 9-3-89

To talk to a computer, you must get its attention. 9-17-211

Income and expenses

Orthopedists: an economic profile of those high earners. 1-8-120

Ophthalmologists: still spending more to earn more. 1-22-172

Why psychiatrists are behind the economic eight ball. 2-5-158

How doctors' economic profiles vary in 10 key states. 2-19-78

A dollars-and-pennies look at an overcrowded specialty. 3-5-172

Cardiologists: Have they struck gold out West? 3-19-112

Is a management consultant worth the money? 4-16-70

How your patients' earnings affect yours. 5-14-192

Doctors make too much money? Baloney! 6-11-77

How much Canadian doctors earn, spend, and save. 8-20-132

Doctors' earnings: Look what's happening to your buying power. 9-17-190

Fees: Holding the line gets tougher and tougher. 10-15-192

General surgeons: less busy, but still high earners. 10-29-78

Proven ways to cut practice costs. 10-29-70

Tax strategy: You've got elbowroom—but use it soon. 11-5-14; Practice expenses: Where you can trim—and where you shouldn't. 11-5-124

Practice costs: one battle you're winning. 11-12-138

Group-practice jobs: Suddenly it's a buyer's market. 11-26-27

Internists: nearing an economic crossroads. 11-26-64

OBG: A top-earning specialty loses some of its edge. 12-10-91

Insurance

How to find an insurance agent who's on your side. 1-8-195

Single-premium annuities? They may actually make sense now. 2-5-123

Kidnap insurance: If you buy it, don't brag about it. 5-14-87

Why a new malpractice crisis is coming. 10-29-108

Life insurance: A fresh look at what you really need. 11-5-215

Investments

The case of the phantom cattle and the fleeced doctors. 1-8-90

Rare coins: Are those huge profits for real? 1-8-155

I nearly got scalped on phony Western art. 2-5-196

How to recession-proof your investments—now. 2-19-31

Today's best real-estate deal. 3-5-106

Why most wine investments turn sour. 3-5-163

The case for retirement plans that swing a little. 3-19-159

Our long, careful countdown for condo retirement. 3-19-219

My gourmet restaurant: what a marvelous pain in the neck! 4-2-72

Investing abroad can pay off—but read this first. 4-16-113

Investing for your estate as well as for yourself. 4-30-130

I really get to watch my investments grow. 5-14-164

Don't let your retirement plan loaf on you. 5-28-99

Is your best investment manager living with you? 5-28-78

How to put a retirement plan on track at any age: Getting in shape for an inflation marathon. 6-11-178; Are his sights too high? 6-11-187

Are you chasing tax savings down the investment tube? 6-25-74

Putting the invest-in-photos craze into focus. 6-25-118

The ABCs of investing in gold. 7-9-179

Commercial real estate: how to zero in on the right deal. 7-9-88

How to keep from being buried in a raw-land deal. 8-6-80

He's roping in retirement dollars with Western art. 8-20-114; A pot of gold in Indian pottery. 8-20-125

The beginning investor: Taking the mystery out of the stock market. 9-3-184; Getting started in the bond market. 10-15-80; Picking a path through the mutual-fund maze. 11-12-104; Making the most of the money markets. 12-10-86

Investments with today's best track record. 9-17-144

Ripped off by Wall Street? Here's how to fight back. 10-15-130

Tax strategy: You've got elbowroom—but use it soon. 11-5-14; Idle cash: You have to make it earn its keep. 11-5-104; Investments: Best market bets for the year ahead. 11-5-166; Real estate: What's giving inflation a run for the money. 11-5-178;

Home equity: Make the most of a bedrock asset. 11-5-195

How to louse up a con man's day. 11-12-69

Oriental rugs: still a solid investment to stand on. 12-10-126

Where to put your money in a topsy-turvy world. 12-10-31

How to check out a real estate syndication. 12-24-81

—Bonds

How to recession-proof your investments—now. 2-19-31

How to make the most of a promising bond market. 4-2-93

Investing abroad can pay off—but read this first. 4-16-113

Investing for your estate as well as for yourself. 4-30-130

Where should your money go when interest rates fall? 7-23-33

The beginning investor: Getting started in the bond market. 10-15-80

Investments: Best market bets for the year ahead. 11-5-166

—Mutual funds

You name it, some mutual fund will put your money in it. 1-22-130

Investing abroad can pay off—but read this first. 4-16-113

A fund that pays off however interest rates behave. 6-11-89

The rocking chair approach to wheeling and dealing. 7-23-68

Where should your money go when interest rates fall? 7-23-33

Mutual funds that have a little extra edge. 10-29-99

The beginning investor: Picking a path through the mutual-fund maze. 11-12-104

The beginning investor: Making the most out of the money markets. 12-10-86

The "best way" to go in stock investing? 12-10-169

—Stocks

Are you as cool as your colleagues to hot stock tips? 2-5-84

How to recession-proof your investments—now. 2-19-31

A doctor's landmark legal victory over Wall Street. 3-19-37

Investing abroad can pay off—but read this first. 4-16-113

How to get investment mileage out of the fuel crunch. 5-14-37

Now's the time to start picking up growth stocks. 8-6-155

Eight ways to trim investment costs. 8-20-81

The beginning investor: Taking the mystery out of the stock market. 9-3-184

What's behind the hard sell on preferred stocks. 9-17-103

Mutual funds that have a little extra edge. 10-29-99

Investments: Best market bets for the year ahead. 11-5-166

A promising new investment area opens up. 11-26-91

A numbers game that could give you an investment edge. 12-24-58

Law

Abortion: medically easy, medicolegally risky. 1-8-168

How some states are silencing those "hired mouths." 1-22-39

Continued on page 106

Annual subject index

Law (cont.)

My battle with the Feds over patient privacy. 2-5-75
How doctors cooled America's hottest malpractice fight. 2-19-219
As the trustbusters see it, everything doctors do is wrong. 3-5-37
Liability perils that don't involve malpractice. 3-19-81
"Trial by ambush" is not the name of the game. 3-19-188
Are those tougher doctor-policing laws really working? 4-2-106; California: a little kindness and a lot of clout. 4-2-132
How far can you go in fighting an H.M.O.? 4-16-65
Open season on your medical records is here. 4-16-29
Dr. Nork returns to medicine. 5-14-146
How a $7 million HSA flagship sank itself. 5-14-79
How a settled claim came back to life—six years later. 5-28-71
How to play by H.S.A. rules and still win. 5-28-111
How to leave the witness chair without egg on your face. 6-11-101
A standard claim-form system that nobody likes. 6-11-141
Are patients who sue immune to countersuit? 7-9-29
Witness tampering: how that charge wrecked a malpractice defense. 7-9-206
Well, so much for handling 1,000 patients a week. 7-23-92
Why the FTC has declared war on doctors. 8-6-29
Do you still need parental consent to treat a minor? 9-17-218
Medicine vs. chiropractic: Our leaders let all of us down. 9-17-133
Setting hard-and-fast rules for informed consent. 9-17-153
Ripped off by Wall Street? Here's how to fight back. 10-15-130
Tax-shelter practice income? Yes, if you'll fight. 10-15-37

Malpractice

Abortion: medically easy, medicolegally risky. 1-8-168
How "doctored" records added up to $4,500,000. 1-8-81
How some states are silencing those "hired mouths." 1-22-39
Turning off the patient's family can turn on a lawsuit. 1-22-119
Manage emergencies by phone? I do. 2-5-283
How doctors cooled America's hottest malpractice fight. 2-19-219
An expert's road map of the malpractice minefield. 4-2-78
How a settled claim came back to life—six years later. 5-28-71
Malpractice screening panels: another great idea gone sour? 5-28-35
Are patients who sue immune to countersuit? 7-9-29
Witness tampering: how that charge wrecked a malpractice defense. 7-9-206
Do you still need parental consent to treat a minor? 9-17-218
Setting hard-and-fast rules for informed consent. 9-17-153
Is your staff setting liability traps for you? 10-15-75
Why a new malpractice crisis is coming. 10-29-108
My malpractice trial: an ordeal, but what an education! 11-26-59
Now they're suing "insensitive" doctors. 12-10-119
Did I carry medical policing too far? 12-24-53
An old liability trend makes a comeback. 12-24-27

Medical-care costs

What you can expect from an inflation-wary Congress. 1-8-37
Let's keep residents out of community hospitals. 2-5-80
Will tomorrow's doctors teach you cost control? 2-5-137
"You don't have a choice between change and no change." 3-5-143
What's ahead for doctors if N.H.I. founders. 3-19-125
Don't swallow all those scare stories about health reforms. 4-16-93
Living with today's wage-price guidelines—or worse. 4-16-132
Little tricks your colleagues use to cut health costs. 5-28-160
Big Business turns up the heat on doctors. 7-9-109
My diagnostic regimen was worse than my "disease." 7-9-87
We're just plain overcharging our patients. 7-9-157
It's time we made hospitals stop ripping off patients. 9-17-75
Who's behind soaring medical costs? We are, of course. 9-17-171

Medical profession

Guess who's really destroying private practice! 1-8-253
My battle with the Feds over patient privacy. 2-5-75
What's bugging you about medicine may be you. 2-19-72
Are those tougher doctor-policing laws really working? 4-2-106; California: a little kindness and a lot of clout. 4-2-132
Don't swallow all those scare stories about health reforms. 4-16-93
Dr. Nork returns to medicine. 5-14-146
Does it pay to advertise? A report on doctors who do. 8-6-168
Why can't we heed a colleague's cry for help? 8-6-73
How to fight back when your profession is attacked. 8-20-69
The year the pendulum swung back. 8-20-150
Doctor rehabilitation: It is working. 11-26-114

Office

What's your practice worth—in cash? 1-22-180
Don't let a forger "doctor" your checks. 3-5-242
How to see more patients without working harder. 3-19-88
The whole town financed this medical office building. 4-2-145
Who says you have to sacrifice comfort for efficiency? 5-28-132
I take part of my office home every night. 8-6-151
This group alone moving your office? Do it! 10-15-206
How a malpractice sure my new office would fail. 12-10-145

Organized medicine

Guess who's really destroying private practice! 1-8-253
Will tomorrow's doctors teach you cost control? 2-5-137
What the F.T.C. actually said about doctor advertising. 2-19-211
As the trustbusters see it, everything doctors do is wrong. 3-5-37
New quality controls on your practice: how soon, how tough? 6-25-142
Big Business turns up the heat on doctors. 7-9-109

A public agency that's giving private care a boost. 7-23-159

Why the FTC has declared war on doctors. 8-6-29
How to fight back when your profession is attacked. 8-20-69
Medicine vs. chiropractic: Our leaders let all of us down. 9-17-133
Doctor rehabilitation: It is working. 11-26-114
Who says doctors can't live with negotiated fees. 12-10-131

Partnership, group, and solo practice

Corporate groups: how each doctor can have his own retirement plan. 2-5-249
I.P.A.: the initials that may mean your future. 2-19-124
How far can you go in fighting an H.M.O.? 4-16-65
Taking on an associate: Leave nothing to chance. 4-16-125
A handshake is all the contract our partnership needs. 5-14-216
Father-and-son practice: special problems, special pleasures. 6-11-84
How to turn patients on to a new associate. 6-25-111
Big Business turns up the heat on doctors. 7-9-109
Take in three partners at once? This ex-soloist did. 7-9-193
Thinking of joining a group? Here's how to check it out. 7-23-115
These retirees stay young giving free care to the aged. 8-6-147
Here comes another big push to put an HMO in your future. 8-20-29
Will a half-million-dollar gamble pay off for these young doctors? 9-3-158
Combining prepaid care with traditional practice. 9-17-85
No practice is too small to consider a business manager. 10-15-109
Group-practice jobs: Suddenly it's a buyer's market. 11-26-27
Why solo practice is due for a comeback. 12-10-109

Patients

"I just can't talk to my patients about . . ." 1-8-228
What electronic banking can do for—and to—you. 1-8-243
A hospital bed for a dying patient? Medicaid said No. 1-22-151
I look after my patients' health, education, and welfare. 1-22-77
Turning off the patient's family can turn on a lawsuit. 1-22-119
Manage emergencies by phone? I do. 2-5-283
What some patients really want to know about surgery. 2-5-205
The best way to tell patients what to expect from you. 2-19-84
The house call that saved five lives. 2-19-77
Are your business ethics out of date? 3-5-228
When we turn away new patients, everybody loses. 3-5-87
Geriatric care: Is Britain doing something right? 3-19-213
I'm tired of losing patients one piece at a time. 3-19-77
Whatever became of grateful patients? They're all over. 3-19-153
These doctors see Medicaid patients—or else! 4-2-29
Telling a patient what's wrong when you really don't know. 4-16-83
Even a phony lawyer gets top care—need it or not. 5-14-179
How your patients' earnings affect yours. 5-14-192

Battle-tested ways to win hostile patients over. 5-28-181
 Let's be more professional about professional courtesy. 5-28-127
 Little tricks your colleagues use to cut health costs. 5-28-160
I used my office for a drug-bust trap. 6-11-167
 How to turn patients on to a new associate. 6-25-111
 How to make a practice flourish in a hayfield. 7-9-82
 We're just plain overcharging our patients. 7-9-157
A public agency that's giving private care a boost. 7-23-159
 We took off with 82 passengers. I delivered the 83rd. 7-23-131
 These retirees stay young giving free care to the aged. 8-6-147
 What a straight doctor should know to treat gays. 8-6-123
 In defense of the diagnostic shotgun. 9-3-79
 Do you still need parental consent to treat a minor? 9-17-218
 Should you tell a patient you've made a mistake? 9-17-115
 Your waiting room's a zoo? Here's how to tame it. 9-17-86
 Is it time for "consumerist" surgery? 10-15-143
 Is your staff setting liability traps for you? 10-15-75
 Doing more for the patient you "can't do any more for." 10-29-67
 The two sides of every successful consultation. 12-10-172
 When you have to break bad news. 12-10-81
 When you're confronted with a psychiatric emergency. 12-24-99

Personal finances

First we built our own house. Then we built 400 more. 1-8-180
 What electronic banking can do for—and to—you. 1-8-243
 How medical families spend their money: "When you live in a town, you have to be part of it." 1-22-90; "We're preparing for the very worst." 10-15-88; "My career always comes second." 11-26-72
 Incorporation is more than just cutting taxes. 1-22-227
 The new capital gains rules: Everybody wins. 1-22-213
 Finding today's—and tomorrow's—best car buys. 2-5-256
 Single-premium annuities? They may actually make sense now. 2-5-123
 How doctors' economic profiles vary in 10 key states. 2-19-78
 More fun for less money on your next vacation. 2-19-167
 A retirement crash plan that worked perfectly. 2-19-100
 What you'll need to know in case of divorce. 2-19-179
 Don't let a forger "doctor" your checks. 3-5-242
 How to get investment mileage out of the fuel crunch. 5-14-37
 Would my five-year retirement timetable work for you? 5-14-94
 Do your kids a favor—make them pay some college bills. 5-28-149
 Is your best investment manager living with you? 5-28-78
 How to put a retirement plan on track at any age. 6-11-174; Getting in shape for an inflation marathon. 6-11-178; Are his sights too high? 6-11-187; Real estate is great, but . . . 6-11-197
Funny money is getting serious. 6-25-127
 Trying to cut auto-repair costs? Don't overlook junkyards. 6-25-97

How to figure the inflation factor on a price tag. 7-9-142
 A bushel of apples almost cost us $15,000. 7-23-107
 The rocking chair approach to wheeling and dealing. 7-23-68
Rent a truck? It could be a good move. 8-6-118
 How much Canadian doctors earn, spend, and save. 8-20-132
 What do you really know about your retirement plan? 8-20-142
 Divorce doesn't have to mean a financial shoot-out. 9-3-103
 Why I grew to hate my tax-saving trust. 10-15-211
 A penny saved just won't hack it today. 11-5-11; Tax strategy: You've got elbowroom—but use it soon. 11-5-14; Net worth: Pick a realistic target for 1980. 11-5-50; Family spending: Control it without hobbling your lifestyle. 11-5-72; Managing debt: When red ink can work for you. 11-5-96; Idle cash: You have to make it earn its keep. 11-5-104; Practice expenses: Where you can trim—and where you shouldn't. 11-5-124; Retirement: Matching your nest egg to the life you want. 11-5-136; Investments: Best market bets for the year ahead. 11-5-166; Real estate: What's giving inflation a run for the money. 11-5-178; Home equity: Make the most of a bedrock asset. 11-5-195; Life insurance: A fresh look at what you really need. 11-5-215
 How to louse up a con man's day. 11-12-69
 Has inflation crippled your retirement fund? 12-24-90

Personal life

First we built our own house. Then we built 400 more. 1-8-180
 "Hold tight! We're going to crash in the jungle!" 1-8-94

Rare coins: Are those huge profits for real? 1-8-155
 The Datsun 280-ZX: This time, more is better. 1-22-82
 How medical families spend their money: "When you live in a town, you have to be part of it." 1-22-90; "We're preparing for the very worst." 10-15-88; "My career always comes second." 11-26-72
 Club Med: swinging resort or summer camp for adults? 2-5-214
 He's going under—and loving it. 2-5-112
How to outsmart a fancy menu. 2-5-288
 I beat the mid-career doldrums by getting back to basics. 2-5-268
Want more time off? It's easier than you think. 2-5-79
 Change your practice—or change yourself? 2-19-69
A doctor's daughter faces his death. 2-19-147
 What's bugging you about medicine may be you. 2-19-72
 What you'll need to know in case of divorce. 2-19-179
 One doctor, two practices—1,300 miles apart. 3-5-128
 Unconventional hotels in convention cities. 3-5-93
Liability perils that don't involve malpractice. 3-19-81
 "My God, I've been shot!" 3-19-82
 Well, why not build an airplane in your spare time? 3-19-199
 Stuck with a lemon? Here's how your colleagues fight back. 4-16-147
 And this room . . . well, it's my shipyard. 5-14-180
 We ran all the way across England—lively! 5-28-136
 How did I fill my swimming pool? Well, I cried a lot. 6-11-156
 Who says package tours are always disappointing? 6-11-206
 What could a detective dig up about you? 6-25-69
Continued on page 108

"You just revive his will to live. I'll take it from there."

Annual subject index

Personal life (cont.)

My diagnostic regimen was worse than my "dis-ease." 7-9-87
The only way to win at the track: Own the horse. 7-9-125
Out, out, damned spot! 7-9-190
Where would you go for a perfect $2,500 vacation? 7-9-224
Malpractice suits closed my office—even though I won. 7-23-74
If China tempts you, don't overlook Hong Kong. 8-6-136
Rent a truck? It could be a good move. 8-6-118
Family practice from a wheelchair? I've learned how. 8-20-76
He followed his own advice—right out of medicine. 8-20-158
He's roping in retirement dollars with Western art. 8-20-114; A pot of gold in Indian pottery. 8-20-125
Divorce doesn't have to mean a financial shoot-out. 9-3-103
Sneak sleeping: how to recognize and cope with it. 9-3-89
A kit that brings him closer to fire walking. 9-17-230
After hours. 10-1-9; Sharing your life with somebody else. 10-1-12; What makes some marriages terrific. 10-1-16; What makes other marriages lousy. 10-1-33; Extramarital sex: Sometimes it helps. 10-1-51; Raising a family—your toughest job. 10-1-68; Yours aren't the only "impossible" kids. 10-1-72; Where religion fits in. 10-1-101; Drinking and drugs: behind the hard numbers. 10-1-109; Getting more fun out of life. 10-1-120; Don't play doctor all the time. 10-1-124; How personal possessions help. 10-1-135; Vacations: More is definitely better. 10-1-147; Taking stock—and looking ahead. 10-1-184
A hobby you can really dig. 10-1-170
This Sunday driver needs fireproof underwear. 10-1-160
From Bug to Bugatti in only 1,001 easy steps. 10-15-122
Midwinter breaks guaranteed to beat the blahs. 11-12-75
The night we worked through hell. 11-12-82
What's so good about the new 35mm cameras? Plenty. 11-26-102
We haven't seen anything close to real inflation. 12-10-183
Don't be a square peg—but don't quit medicine, either. 12-24-85

Practice management

Having trouble reading your own charts? 1-22-224
Want more time off? It's easier than you think. 2-5-79

The best way to tell patients what to expect from you. 2-19-84
When we turn away new patients, everybody loses. 3-5-87
How the I.R.S. turned up our $360,000 embezzler. 3-19-139
How to see more patients without working harder. 3-19-88
Working at full capacity? A lot of your colleagues aren't. 4-2-63
Is a management consultant worth the money? 4-16-70
The doctor as boss: hiring top assistants. 5-14-196; training a new assistant. 5-28-84; teaching good telephone technique. 6-11-118; teaching the subtle art of collections. 6-25-78
Books every doctor needs to own. 6-11-80
A standard claim-form system that nobody likes. 6-11-141
The trouble with cash payments: They disappear. 6-11-90
Try this filing system for retrieving medical pearls. 7-9-137
Things even your best employees won't tell you—unless you ask. 8-6-111
The doctor who was too good to his staff. 9-3-90
Your waiting room's a zoo? Here's how to tame it. 9-17-86
Proven ways to cut practice costs. 10-29-70
Practice expenses: Where you can trim—and where you shouldn't. 11-5-124
Bring in an expert to size up your practice? 11-12-115
My typewriter does insurance claims by itself. 12-24-65

Practice, special types

This doctor makes millions of house calls every week. 1-8-256
The right way to get doctors where they're needed. 2-5-289
... so I joined the Air Force at 56. 2-5-175
One doctor, two practices—1,300 miles apart. 3-5-128
Malpractice suits closed my office—even though I won. 7-23-74
To really sell good health care, try a little show biz. 9-3-117

Professions, other

First we built our own house. Then we built 400 more. 1-8-180
Guess who the bad guys were at my natural-childbirth course. 1-8-138
How to find an insurance agent who's on your side. 1-8-195

What you can expect from an inflation-wary Congress. 1-8-37
Why can't lawyers use plain English? 2-5-182
How Washington grows rich with our money. 3-5-184
A doctor's landmark legal victory over Wall Street. 3-19-37
Our long, careful countdown for condo retirement. 3-19-219
California: a little kindness and a lot of clout. 4-2-132
Is a management consultant worth the money? 4-16-70
Don't stick your heirs with unnecessary expenses. 4-30-112
Even a phony lawyer gets top care—need it or not. 5-14-179
Malpractice screening panels: another great idea gone sour? 5-28-35
Doctors make too much money? Baloney! 6-11-77
What could a detective dig up about you? 6-25-69
We don't need this kind of emergency medical service. 7-9-75
A bushel of apples almost cost us $15,000. 7-23-107
Well, so much for handling 1,000 patients a week. 7-23-92
Eight ways to trim investment costs. 8-20-81
The doctor who was too good to his staff. 9-3-90
How many patients still get the drug you prescribe? 9-3-35
Medicine vs. chiropractic: Our leaders let all of us down. 9-17-133
A new source of help when you build a house. 9-17-188
No practice is too small to consider a business manager. 10-15-109
Podiatrists: pushing for equal rights on the medical team. 10-15-159
Bring in an expert to size up your practice? 11-12-115
The Kennedy liberal with a big voice in your future. 11-12-125
Where do doctors stand in a nurses' strike? Right in the middle! 12-24-66

Records

How "doctored" records added up to $4,500,000. 1-8-81
Having trouble reading your own charts? 1-22-224
Open season on your medical records is here. 4-16-29
How to collect for every insurance report you make. 8-6-162
A system for keeping insurance forms where they belong. 10-15-185
Can peer review go public and survive? 12-10-187

Retirement

Corporate groups: how each doctor can have his own retirement plan. 2-5-249
How to keep a geared-down practice rolling along. 2-5-149
A retirement crash plan that worked perfectly. 2-19-100
The case for retirement plans that swing a little. 3-19-159
Our long, careful countdown for condo retirement. 3-19-219
I bagged my surgical career at age 50. 4-16-74
Would my five-year retirement timetable work for you? 5-14-94
Don't let your retirement plan loaf on you. 5-28-99

Itinerant anesthesiologist

At the bedside of an elderly and slightly deaf lady, I introduced myself by saying, "Good morning. I'm Dr. Cestone, from anesthesia." Smiling as she lifted herself up slightly, she replied, "My, it's nice of you to come from so far away to see me."

—Kenneth J. Cestone, M.D.

ANNOUNCING A NEW DOSAGE FORM

Tolmetin[®] DS
(TOLMETIN SODIUM) DOUBLE STRENGTH CAPSULES 400MG.

McNEIL

McNEIL LABORATORIES
Ft. Washington, PA. 19034

©McNEILAB, Inc. 1979

MEDICAL ECONOMICS · DECEMBER 24 · 1979 109

How to put a retirement plan on track at any age. 6-11-174; Getting in shape for an inflation marathon. 6-11-178; Are his sights too high? 6-11-187; Real estate is great, but . . . 6-11-197
These retirees stay young giving free care to the aged. 8-6-147
What do you really know about your retirement plan? 8-20-142
Retirement: Matching your nest egg to the life you want. 11-5-136
Has inflation crippled your retirement fund? 12-24-90

Specialty and general practice

Orthopedists: an economic profile of those high earners. 1-8-120
Ophthalmologists: still spending more to earn more. 1-22-172
How to keep a geared-down practice rolling along. 2-5-149
I beat the mid-career doldrums by getting back to basics. 2-5-268
My battle with the Feds over patient privacy. 2-5-75
What some patients really want to know about surgery. 2-5-205
Why psychiatrists are behind the economic eight ball. 2-5-158
Change your practice—or change yourself? 2-19-69
A dollars-and-patients look at an overcrowded specialty. 3-5-172
Cardiologists: Have they struck gold out West? 3-19-112
I'm tired of losing patients one piece at a time. 3-19-77
Working at full capacity? A lot of your colleagues aren't. 4-2-63
I bagged my surgical career at age 50. 4-16-74
FPs vs. OBGs: a battle over babies. 6-25-129
New quality controls on your practice: how soon, how tough? 6-25-142
I was sold on recertification—until I tried it. 7-23-65
Well, so much for handling 1,000 patients a week. 7-23-92
Doctors' earnings: Look what's happening to your buying power. 9-17-190
Fees: Holding the line gets tougher and tougher. 10-15-142
Is it time for "consumerist" surgery? 10-15-143
General surgeons: less busy, but still high earners. 10-29-78
Practice costs: one battle you're winning. 11-12-138
Internists: nearing an economic crossroads. 11-26-64
OBG: A top-earning specialty loses some of its edge. 12-10-91
The two sides of every successful consultation. 12-10-172
When you're confronted with a psychiatric emergency. 12-24-99

Taxes

Your tax calendar for 1979: More Social Security means more chance for trouble. 1-8-170
Answers to your tax questions. 1-22-111; 2-5-107; 2-19-119; 3-5-137
The new capital gains rules: Everybody wins. 1-22-213; Your home is an even better tax shelter now. 1-22-218
Dependency exemptions that you might be overlooking. 2-5-277
Ten surprising ways to cut your income tax bill. 2-19-199
You might make more if your corporation pays you less. 2-19-151
How to keep your tax return off the I.R.S. hit list. 3-5-213

Today's best real-estate deal. 3-5-106
Tax savings you—and your adviser—are likely to miss. 3-19-204
My gourmet restaurant: what a marvelous pain in the neck! 4-2-72
Why you can't get by with a simple will. 4-30-58; How to leave your children a tax break. 4-30-73; Guard against these seven tax traps. 4-30-90; Investing for your estate as well as for yourself. 4-30-130
Don't let your retirement plan loaf on you. 5-28-99
Are you chasing tax savings down the investment tube? 6-25-74
What the IRS hunts for in doctor corporation audits. 6-25-29
Games doctors play with corporate fringes. 7-9-147
How to keep from being buried in a raw-land deal. 8-6-80
Tax-shelter practice income? Yes, if you'll fight. 10-15-37
Why I grew to hate my tax-saving trust. 10-15-211
The IRS kept auditing returns they said I hadn't filed. 10-29-93
Tax strategy: You've got elbowroom—but use it soon. 11-5-14; Net worth: Pick a realistic target for 1980. 11-5-50
Tax strategy for the two-income family. 12-10-155

Travel

"Hold tight! We're going to crash in the jungle!" 1-8-94
The first step toward bankruptcy: a vacation in Paris. 1-22-162
Club Med: swinging resort or summer camp for adults? 2-5-214
More fun for less money on your next vacation. 2-19-167
A retirement crash plan that worked perfectly. 2-19-100
A way for you—and your kids—to serve the poor. 3-19-180
Last chance for a civilized trip across the U.S.? 5-14-139
Who says package tours are always disappointing? 6-11-206
One way to make today's dollar cover a trip abroad. 6-25-137
Out, out, damned spot! 7-9-190
Where would you go for a perfect $2,500 vacation? 7-9-224
You still don't have to go broke to enjoy Paris. 7-9-203
Camp across Europe? Any doctor can! 7-23-84
We took off with 82 passengers. I delivered the 83rd. 7-23-131
Don't pass up those pre-convention tours abroad. 8-6-191
If China tempts you, don't overlook Hong Kong. 8-6-136
I sailed away from medicine for 18 magnificent months. 8-6-86
He followed his own advice—right out of medicine. 8-20-158
Vienna: better in winter, best at Christmas. 9-3-176
How do you pin a fracture in a tropical retreat? 9-17-177
A kit that brings him closer to fire walking. 9-17-230
After hours . . . Vacations: More is definitely better. 10-1-147
A hobby you can really dig. 10-1-170
We toured the Mideast—chasing our cruise ship. 10-15-171
Midwinter breaks guaranteed to beat the blahs. 11-12-75 ■